COMMUNION TO THE SICK AND HOMEBOUND

Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion are lay people who share the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ with the faithful.

They perform an important role in the life of the Catholic Church especially, for those who are unable to attend the weekly Mass with the whole community because of ill health or frailty.

This ministry is becoming more significant in our parish because of the growing number of parishioners who are house bound.

If you would like to be part of this ministry, please contact Fr Gerard for more information on 7064 3920.

"The greatest love story of all time is contained in a tiny white host" ~ Abp. Fulton Sheen

We pray for Robert Keng Meu Kiong, Paulette Desveaux and all those who have died recently.

We pray for Barry, John, Irene Duggan, Isidra Reyno, Nuniatta Giordano, Carmelo Deila, Benjamin Hennequin, Luc Hennequin, Agnes Vellin, Tran Ngoc Lieu, Harold Du'Pratt, Frank Camenzuli and all those whose anniversary occur at about this time.

Please also pray for all those who are sick.

We acknowledge the Traditional Owners of the land on which we stand.
We pay our respects to the Elders, past and present.

RESURRECTION LANDSCAPE

This weekend after each Mass, there will be an opportunity for you to give your feedback on the proposed landscape design. This feedback will be taken to the Parish Council Meeting held on Monday 26th August. The collective insights will be forwarded to the landscaper for final drawings and then sent out to tender.

ADDITIONAL WORKS

- The memorial peace garden has been moved to the bell tower at the front entrance of the church. A special thanks to Frank Grech for his work.
- The tanks and excess pipping around the back entrance of the church has been removed.

READING 1

Dt 4:1-2, 6-8

Moses said to the people: "Now, Israel, hear the statutes and decrees which I am teaching you to observe, that you may live, and may enter in and take possession of the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you. In your observance of the commandments of the LORD, your God, which I enjoin upon you, you shall not add to what I command you nor subtract from it. Observe them carefully, for thus will you give evidence of your wisdom and intelligence to the nations, who will hear of all these statutes and say, 'This great nation is truly a wise and intelligent people.' For what great nation is there that has gods so close to it as the LORD, our God, is to us whenever we call upon him? Or what great nation has statutes and decrees that are as just as this whole law which I am setting before you today?"

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 15:2-3, 3-4, 4-5

R. (1a) The one who does justice will live in the presence of the Lord.

READING 2

Jas 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27

Dearest brothers and sisters: All good giving and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no alteration or shadow caused by change. He willed to give us birth by the word of truth that we may be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures. Humbly welcome the word that has been planted in you and is able to save your souls. Be doers of the word and not hearers only, deluding yourselves. Religion that is pure and undefiled before God and the Father is this: to care for orphans and widows in their affliction and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

GOSPEL

Mk 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

When the Pharisees with some scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around Jesus, they observed that some of his disciples ate their meals with unclean, that is, unwashed, hands. —For the Pharisees and, in fact, all Jews, do not eat without carefully washing their hands, keeping the tradition of the elders. And on coming from the marketplace they do not eat without purifying themselves. And there are many other things that they have traditionally observed, the purification of cups and jugs and kettles and beds. — So the Pharisees and scribes questioned him, "Why do your disciples not follow the tradition of the elders but instead eat a meal with unclean hands?" He responded, "Well did Isaiah prophesy about you hypocrites, as it is written: This people honors me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me; in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines human precepts. You disregard God's commandment but cling to human tradition." He summoned the crowd again and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand. Nothing that enters one from outside can defile that person; but the things that come out from within are what defile. "From within people, from their hearts, come evil thoughts, unchastity, theft, murder, adultery, greed, malice, deceit, licentiousness, envy, blasphemy, arrogance, folly. All these evils come from within and they defile."

Reflection

Living Stewardship

"Be doers of the word and not hearers only..." JAMES 1:22

It's easy to understand the definition of Stewardship – living a grateful and generous life. The hard part is doing it! How do your words and actions reflect God's word? Do you share your time in prayer with God daily? Do you use your talent to help those in need without expecting anything in return? Are you generous with your financial resources? If not, what are you waiting for?
