AN INVITATION FROM THE SCHOOL

Next week is Bullying No Way Week. It is Australia's key bullying prevention initiative and connects schools and communities to find workable solutions to prevent bullying. Purple is the new hero colour and the theme for 2024 is Everyone Belongs!

Members of the Parish are welcome to join the school community for a picnic on the oval after the Feast of the Assumption Mass to stand in solidarity and support focusing on the theme Everyone Belongs.

After the Mass, students will go back to their classrooms and collect their lunch boxes before gathering on the oval at around 10.15pm. Each student will have a hand that they have previously decorated with a pledge to play their part in Everyone Belongs. We will then create a banner on the oval fence with all the hands showing our commitment to prevent Bullying. Parents and Parishioners are welcome to join us as there will be hands available for you to also make a pledge and attach this to the banner.

We pray for Sunny Grech, Kim Borg and all those who have died recently.

We pray for Edward Storace, Rebecca Vas, Carmelo Falzon, Pedro Abrigo, Edgardo Abrigo, Thomas Lionel Hiscox, Mr & Mrs Maryamma Augustia, Adela Kovacevic, Patsy Lobo, Mary Rodrigues, Shirley Corrigan, Reynaldo Dizon, Winifredo, Gregoria, Celieto Delariarte, Jane Crawford and all those whose anniversary occur at about this time.

Please also pray for Sydney Vas and all those who are sick.

READING 1

Prv 9:1-6

Wisdom has built her house, she has set up her seven columns; she has dressed her meat, mixed her wine, yes, she has spread her table. She has sent out her maidens; she calls from the heights out over the city: "Let whoever is simple turn in here; To the one who lacks understanding, she says, Come, eat of my food, and drink of the wine I have mixed! Forsake foolishness that you may live; advance in the way of understanding."

came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7

R. (9a) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

READING 2

Eph 5:15-20

Brothers and sisters: Watch carefully how you live, not as foolish persons but as wise, making the most of the opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore, do not continue in ignorance, but try to understand what is the will of the Lord. And do not get drunk on wine, in which lies debauchery, but be filled with the Spirit, addressing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and playing to the Lord in your hearts, giving thanks always and for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to God the Father.

GOSPEL

Jn 6:51-58

Jesus said to the crowds: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world." The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that

"Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him." John 6:56

This line from Scripture is what ultimately separates Catholics who live Stewardship from our Protestant brothers and sisters. Jesus is really present in the bread and wine that are consecrated at Holy Mass. It is His actual body and blood that we consume. This is the greatest gift that we can receive. The Eucharist shows us how great of love that Jesus has for each of us.
