ST VINCENT DE PAUL FEAST DAY - 24TH / 25TH SEPTEMBER

*Share with God's people who are in need.
Practice hospitality (Romans 12:13).*

"The St Vincent de Paul Society is a lay Catholic organisation that aspires to live the gospel message by serving Christ in the poor with love, respect, justice, hope and joy, and by working to shape a more just and compassionate society".

Our Kings Park conference of St Vincent de Paul aspires to this vision in the local community by visiting families who are in need. Also, during Lent there is a collection of non-perishable food items and during Advent, there is a collection of toys to be distributed to those in need. They meet every first Monday of the month in the parish office.

To support the great work of our St Vincent de Paul conference there will be a leaving collection at each Mass and an opportunity to become a member.

If you want to know more about St. Vincent de Paul Society and the work they do, please visit <https://www.vinnies.org.au/>

We pray for Queen Elizabeth II and all those who have recently died.

We pray for Carmelo Darmanin, Rita Isabella Marikar, Florencio Parel Sr., Emilio Del Rosario, Joe Lomax, Carmen Xiberras, Hospicio Lagura Wilfred & Mina Aubert, Alan Roberts and all those whose anniversaries occur around this time.

CHEWING GUM

Have you ever noticed how many parishioners chew chewing gum in church? Have you ever seen the chewing gum stuck to the carpet, underneath the chairs or the outside pavement? Parents please ensure that your children do not bring chewing gum into the church. Adults are requested to give a good example to children by refraining from chewing gum in church.

ROSTERS

Don't forget to check the rosters for the following week to find out when you are rostered. Should you not be able to fulfil your roster commitment please advise the Parish Office.

READING 1

Am 6:1a, 4-7

Thus says the LORD the God of hosts: Woe to the complacent in Zion! Lying upon beds of ivory, stretched comfortably on their couches, they eat lambs taken from the flock, and calves from the stall! Improvising to the music of the harp, like David, they devise their own accompaniment. They drink wine from bowls and anoint themselves with the best oils; yet they are not made ill by the collapse of Joseph! Therefore, now they shall be the first to go into exile, and their wanton revelry shall be done away with.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 146:7, 8-9, 9-10

R. (1b) Praise the Lord, my soul!

READING 2

1 Tm 6:11-16

But you, man of God, pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Compete well for the faith. Lay hold of eternal life, to which you were called when you made the noble confession in the presence of many witnesses. I charge you before God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who gave testimony under Pontius Pilate for the noble confession, to keep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ that the blessed and only ruler will make manifest at the proper time, the King of kings and Lord of lords, who alone has immortality, who dwells in unapproachable light, and whom no human being has seen or can see. To him be honor and eternal power. Amen.

GOSPEL

Lk 16:19-31

Jesus said to the Pharisees: "There was a rich man who dressed in purple garments and fine linen and dined sumptuously each day. And lying at his door was a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who would gladly have eaten his fill of the scraps that fell from the rich man's table. Dogs even used to come and lick his sores. When the poor man died, he was carried away by angels to the bosom of Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried, and from the netherworld, where he was in torment, he raised his eyes and saw Abraham far off and Lazarus at his side. And he cried out, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me. Send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am suffering torment in these flames.' Abraham replied, 'My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established to prevent anyone from crossing who might wish to go from our side to yours or from your side to ours.' He said, 'Then I beg you, father, send him to my father's house, for I have five brothers, so that he may warn them, lest they too come to this place of torment.' But Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.' He said, 'Oh no, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.' Then Abraham said, 'If they will not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone should rise from the dead.'"

Reflection

"My child, remember that you received what was good during your lifetime while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented. Moreover, between us and you a great chasm is established..."

Luke 16:25-26

When God created the world He declared that it was good and He gave it to all mankind for us to enjoy. However, over the years we have created a chasm between those who have great gifts and those who do not. In today's Gospel we see that with our own generosity we must bridge that gap between those who have much and those who have little or we may find ourselves on the wrong side of the chasm in the next life.
