Synodal Church: Communion, Participation and Mission

THEME 2:

Co-responsibility between laity and clergy

The theme of co-responsibility and greater empowerment of the laity was often identified in submissions as a sought-after response to the sexual abuse crisis. It was stated several times that amongst the Church hierarchy there was a lack of 'transparency', and that greater consultation of the laity needed to be fostered.

We also encourage co-responsibility of the laity because they can help the Church to foster a sense of family.

Importantly, co-responsibility was seen to be a way that the hierarchy could rebuild trust with the laity. The hierarchy was frequently characterised as a 'club' that made decisions in the dark, disconnected from the realities of the people. One aspect of decision-making, highlighted by several submissions, was to do with the movement of clergy.

Some submissions recounted experiences of the arrival of a new parish priest, depending on his personality and way of operating can have the potential for a dis-empowering effect on the community, leading to the suggestion that parish communities should have more involvement in the priests sent to them:

Given the scarcity of priests, this means that a vibrant parish community can find itself at the mercy of a priest who is not pastoral.

While far from this now, both hierarchy and laity can have an equal sense of ownership of the Church, sensitively approached.

There was no consultation re the appointment of the parish priest and now our alive community is destroyed.

Co-responsibility was also seen as an antidote to the 'curse of clericalism' which 'hinders God's work.' There was also a strong emphasis on the mission of the laity needing to be emboldened.

The role of the laity within the People of God needs to be enhanced and affirmed.

Reading 1

Gn 14:18-20

In those days, Melchizedek, king of Salem, brought out bread and wine, and being a priest of God Most High, he blessed Abram with these words:

"Blessed be Abram by God Most High, the creator of heaven and earth; and blessed be God Most High, who delivered your foes into your hand." Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 110:1, 2, 3, 4

R (4b) You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

Reading 2

1 Cor 11:23-26

Brothers and sisters:

I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night he was handed over, took bread, and, after he had given thanks, broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you.

Do this in remembrance of me."

In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me."

For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord until he comes.

Gospel

Lk 9:11b-17

Jesus spoke to the crowds about the kingdom of God, and he healed those who needed to be cured. As the day was drawing to a close, the Twelve approached him and said,

"Dismiss the crowd so that they can go to the surrounding villages and farms and find lodging and provisions;

for we are in a deserted place here."

He said to them, "Give them some food yourselves."

They replied, "Five loaves and two fish are all we have, unless we ourselves go and buy food for all these people."

Now the men there numbered about five thousand.

Then he said to his disciples,

"Have them sit down in groups of about fifty."

They did so and made them all sit down.

Then taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said the blessing over them, broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the crowd.

They all ate and were satisfied.

And when the leftover fragments were picked up,

they filled twelve wicker baskets.

Reflection

"They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." Luke 9:17

The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when you share what you have, even if it doesn't seem like that much, miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! Each of us has a role in God's plan; you just need to place your trust in the Lord. Nothing is impossible with God. You may be the answer to someone else's prayer.
