WE NEED YOUR HELP

Eucharistic Ministers people called to this ministry have the honour along with the priest of offering the Body or Blood of Christ to worshippers.

We are seeking parishioners who attend 9.00am Mass and would like to be a minister of communion to please call the parish office.

Thank you to those parishioners who have called to this ministry.

INDIAN SUBCONTINENT

To all involved in the preparation of the Indian Sub Continent there will be a meeting scheduled for Thursday 21st June at 7.30pm in the Mackillop Room.

COMING ON TIME

Are you aware that approximately one third of people who gather for Eucharist come after Mass has commenced?

The great Council of the Church known as Vatican II (1962-65) changed the Latin "Sacerdos paratus" (When the priest is ready) to "Populo congregato"

(When the people are gathered) as to when Mass is to commence. This simple change underscores the call for the active participation of the people. Even the word "gathered" implies something more than "being ready". People are coming from somewhere and from different situations: from their homes, from the many activities of the past week. All gather together in faith with the Eucharist being the "source and summit" of our lives. We acknowledge the events of the past week and receive sustenance for the week ahead.

Pastorally and liturgically this lateness epidemic poses problems.

Do our Mass times need to change? Should we wait until everyone arrives? How might a different attitude be fostered so that everyone understands all of the Mass is important, including the "Introductory Rites"?

Is 49:1-6

Hear me, O coastlands, listen, O distant peoples.
The LORD called me from birth, from my mother's womb he gave me my name.

He made of me a sharp-edged sword and concealed me in the shadow of his arm. He made me a polished arrow, in his quiver he hid me. You are my servant, he said to me, Israel, through whom I show my glory.

Though I thought I had toiled in vain, and for nothing, uselessly, spent my strength, yet my reward is with the LORD, my recompense is with my God. For now the LORD has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb, that Jacob may be brought back to him and Israel gathered to him; and I am made glorious in the sight of the LORD, and my God is now my strength!

It is too little, he says, for you to be my servant, to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and restore the survivors of Israel; I will make you a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 139:1b-3, 13-14ab, 14c-15

R. (14) I praise you, for I am wonderfully made.

Acts 13:22-26

In those days, Paul said:

"God raised up David as king; of him God testified, I have found David, son of Jesse, a man after my own heart; he will carry out my every wish.

From this man's descendants God, according to his promise, has brought to Israel a savior, Jesus.

John heralded his coming by proclaiming a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel; and as John was completing his course, he would say, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. Behold, one is coming after me; I am not worthy to unfasten the sandals of his feet.'

"My brothers, sons of the family of Abraham, and those others among you who are God-fearing, to us this word of salvation has been sent."

Gospel

Lk 1:57-66, 80

When the time arrived for Elizabeth to have her child she gave birth to a son. Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had shown his great mercy toward her, and they rejoiced with her. When they came on the eighth day to circumcise the child, they were going to call him Zechariah after his father, but his mother said in reply, "No. He will be called John." But they answered her, "There is no one among your relatives who has this name." So they made signs, asking his father what he wished him to be called. He asked for a tablet and wrote, "John is his name," and all were amazed. Immediately his mouth was opened, his tongue freed, and he spoke blessing God. Then fear came upon all their neighbors, and all these matters were discussed throughout the hill country of Judea. All who heard these things took them to heart, saying, "What, then, will this child be?" For surely the hand of the Lord was with him. The child grew and became strong in spirit, and he was in the desert until the day of his manifestation to Israel.

Reflection
Faith Tested

My faith is tested many times every day, and more times than I'd like to confess, I'm unable to keep the banner of faith aloft. If a promise is not kept, or if a secret is betrayed, or if I experience long-lasting pain, I begin to doubt God and God's love. I fall into the chasm of disbelief and I cry out in despair. But then the Spirit lifts me up again, and once more I am secured in faith. I don't know how that happens, save when I cry out earnestly I am answered immediately and am returned to faithfulness. I am once again filled with Spirit and firmly planted on solid ground.
