FEAST OF THE ASSUMPTION

The Feast of the Assumption (15th August) this year falls on a Thursday. Mass will be celebrated at 7.00pm.

The whole school Mass will be celebrated on Friday 16th August at 9.15am. The Feast of the Assumption is a Holy Day of Obligation in Australia.

MALTESE CELEBRATION

Our annual celebration "Tribute to Mary" will be held on 17th August at 6.00pm Mass. Following Mass parishioners are invited to bring a plate to share in the hall. Everyone is welcome.

MARIAN COLLEGE

Enrolments for Year 7 2021 close 23rd August 2019. The next morning tour is 6th August 2019 at 9.00am. To secure your place at our upcoming open morning, or to enrol call 03 9363 1711 or visit www.mariansw.catholic.edu.au for more information.

SAYING THE OUR FATHER

Parishioners would realize that at all our weekend Masses a child is called on to lead the congregation in the praying of the Our Father. Any child is welcome to lead; it is simply a matter of signing up at the Welcome Desk. This can happen weeks in advance.

DIVINE MERCY DEVOTION

The Divine Mercy is a devotion to Jesus Christ associated with the apparitions of Jesus to Faustina Kowalska. The venerated image under this Christological title refers to what Kowalska's diary describes as "God's loving mercy" towards all people, especially for sinners.

Commencing 8th August every Thursday after 7.00pm Mass, Resurrection Parish invites you to join them in the Divine Mercy.

Everyone is welcome.

JER 38:4-6, 8-10

In those days, the princes said to the king: "Jeremiah ought to be put to death; he is demoralizing the soldiers who are left in this city, and all the people, by speaking such things to them; he is not interested in the welfare of our people, but in their ruin." King Zedekiah answered: "He is in your power"; for the king could do nothing with them. And so they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Prince Malchiah, which was in the quarters of the guard, letting him down with ropes. There was no water in the cistern, only mud, and Jeremiah sank into the mud. Ebed-melech, a court official, went there from the palace and said to him: "My lord king, these men have been at fault in all they have done to the prophet Jeremiah, casting him into the cistern. He will die of famine on the spot, for there is no more food in the city." Then the king ordered Ebed-melech the Cushite to take three men along with him, and draw the prophet Jeremiah out of the cistern before he should die.

HEB 12:1-4

Brothers and sisters: Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, the leader and perfecter of faith. For the sake of the joy that lay before him he endured the cross, despising its shame, and has taken his seat at the right of the throne of God. Consider how he endured such opposition from sinners, in order that you may not grow weary and lose heart. In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood.

Gospel

LK 12:49-53

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing! There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. From now on a household of five will be divided, three against two and two against three; a father will be divided against his son and a son against his father, a mother against her daughter and a daughter against her mother, a mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

Stewardship Reflection

"Do you think I have come to give you peace on Earth? No, I tell you, but rather division." (Luke 12:51)

Living a stewardship lifestyle means stepping out of our comfort zone when needed. Many of us like to play it safe, not cause waves, stay in the middle of the road. In today's world we are called to be informed and take a stance for life, marriage and religious liberty.
