THE BISHOP'S VIEW OF OUTREACH BY THE PARISH.

VISITATION TO THE SICK AND HOME BOUND:

I had the opportunity to visit a number of people who were housebound and to pray with them, anointing them with the Oil of the Sick and bringing them the Lord in Holy Communion.

Observation:

I was made aware of the many volunteers, Communion Ministers of the Sick and Housebound.

Commend:

It is wonderful to see the dedication of all involved in reaching out to those who are in special need and vulnerable. By your efforts you bring Christ's love close to our brothers and sisters in their need.

MEET WITH SPECIAL MINISTERS TO THE HOUSEBOUND AND MINISTERS TO THE KAYLA CARE NURSING HOME:

There were some at the meeting who are special ministers to the housebound and there were those who go to Kayla Care Nursing home. You have a number of other volunteers from the Parish who assist as well.

Observation:

There is a real commitment by the Parish in caring for those who are in need a being visited in their homes or the Nursing home.

Commend:

I commend the generosity of people in the Parish in reaching out to people in their homes and the nursing home. You have meetings to organize the particular visitations that are needed.

Morning Tea with members of St Vincent de Paul:

It was good to hear of the work carried out by the members of St Vincent de Paul in your Parish. As members you all shared stories of hardship being experienced by many around your Parish community and indeed the broader community. You are engaged in many visits. There are those who are lonely and those how who are poor and from listening to, your stories, there is a great deal of gratitude expressed to you for visiting them in their time of need and vulnerability.

Observation:

You seem to have one of the largest group of St Vincent de Paul members within our Western region and for good reason.

Commend:

I commend you for you dedication and commitment in reaching out to the needy irrespective of their background, religion or culture and responding with the love of Christ. I also commend members of the faith community for supporting St Vincent de Paul at Christmas and various other occasions during the year.

READING 1

Jeremiah 20:10-13

Jeremiah said: "I hear the whisperings of many: 'Terror on every side! Denounce! let us denounce him!' All those who were my friends are on the watch for any misstep of mine. 'Perhaps he will be trapped; then we can prevail, and take our vengeance on him.' But the LORD is with me, like a mighty champion: my persecutors will stumble, they will not triumph. In their failure they will be put to utter shame, to lasting, unforgettable confusion. O LORD of hosts, you who test the just, who probe mind and heart, let me witness the vengeance you take on them, for to you I have entrusted my cause. Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD, for he has rescued the life of the poor from the power of the wicked!"

afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows. Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever denies me before others, I will deny before my heavenly Father."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

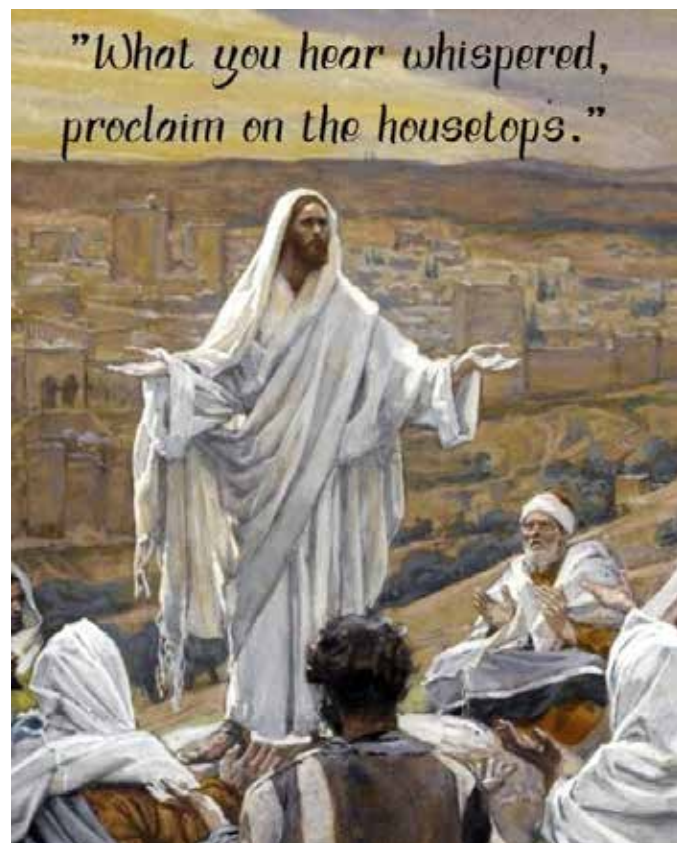

Psalm 69:8-10, 14, 17, 33-35

R. (14c) Lord, in your great love, answer me.

Romans 5:12-15

Brothers and sisters: Through one man sin entered the world, and through sin, death, and thus death came to all men, inasmuch as all sinned— for up to the time of the law, sin was in the world, though sin is not accounted when there is no law. But death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin after the pattern of the trespass of Adam, who is the type of the one who was to come. But the gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, how much more did the grace of God and the gracious gift of the one man Jesus Christ overflow for the many.

GOSPEL

Matthew 10:26-33

Jesus said to the Twelve: "Fear no one. Nothing is concealed that will not be revealed, nor secret that will not be known. What I say to you in the darkness, speak in the light; what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops. And do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; rather, be afraid of the one who can destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be

Reflection
"Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father. But whoever does not acknowledge me before others I will not acknowledge before my heavenly Father."
Matthew 10: 32-33.

Acknowledgment of God is recognition of what God has done for us. To fail to recognize that all we have and are is His gift is not to recognize Him.
